

Diversity Resources

Last Updated Thursday, October 01 2009

Diversity Resources

The Department of Molecular & Cell Biology and the University of California at Berkeley are actively committed to increasing diversity and excellence among our student population. The following links provide information about diversity resources in the College of Letters & Science and at the University of California at Berkeley.

- A Message on Diversity from the Chancellor
- Excellence & Diversity: A Message from Associate Dean Carlos Fernandez-Pello
- UC Berkeley Graduate Diversity Program
- Berkeley Edge Program
- Biological Sciences Graduate Diversity Coordinator
- Berkeley SACNAS Chapter
- NSF REU Program in Cell, Developmental and Evolutionary Biology

The MCB department is proud to be a member of the following national organizations:

The Annual Biomedical Research Conference for Minority Students (ABRCMS)

The Society for Advancement of Chicanos and Native Americans in Science (SACNAS)

Every year MCB faculty and staff attend these two national conferences to provide information about the opportunities in our department. Please look for us at this year's conferences which will be held on the following dates:

SACNAS: October 15 - 18, 2009 in Dallas, TX

ABRCMS: November 4 - 7, 2009 in Phoenix, AZ

For more information or questions, please contact the College of Letters & Science Biological Sciences Diversity Coordinator.